

PRESS RELEASE

April 29, 2020: The Woman's Club of Coconut Grove Members Sew Face Masks for the Community

For more information contact Billie Jean Baldwin at 954-218-1387

Under the direction of Billie Jean Baldwin and Mary Ann Gibbs, 15 members of The Woman's Club of Coconut Grove, have been sewing and distributing at no cost to recipients Eco-Friendly Reusable Face Masks through the community. So far, 500 masks have been delivered or in the process of delivery to family, friends and nonprofit organizations that serve Coconut Grove and the Miami area.

Recipients include:

- Friends and Family and Club members
- Easter Seals after school program and OceanVida's Mindful Art Education Program in Little Haiti
- Grove Watch
- Food Pantry volunteers in West Grove
- Jackson Hospital medical personnel
- Thelma Gibson Health Initiative
- The Veteran's Hospital

The dedicated group of sewers are ready to take more orders. To request a face mask, or to donate sewing materials, such as old cotton bed sheets, pillowcases, quilting fabric and 1/8-14 inch elastic, please contact Billie Jean Baldwin at baldwinbj70@gmail.com.

The Woman's Club of Coconut Grove welcomes donations to support its efforts in the community. Checks are payable to The Woman's Club of Coconut Grove, mailed to 2985 South Bayshore Drive, Coconut Grove, Florida 33133 Attn: Face Mask Project.